

Serving Dealers in the Vehicle Sales Industry

Dealer continuing education questions for 40

June 2019

- A pregnant employee will be able to take how many weeks of PAID family and medical leave if House Bill 2005 becomes law?
 - Ten weeks of standard leave plus four weeks of pregnancy leave.
 - Ten weeks of leave which includes six weeks of standard leave plus four weeks of pregnancy leave.
 - Twelve weeks of standard leave plus two weeks of pregnancy leave.
 - Twenty-four weeks of standard leave.
- To qualify for Oregon's new PAID family and medical leave, an employee will need to only earn _____ in the current or previous calendar year.
 - $100
 - $500
 - $1,000
 - $2,500
- How many different minimum wages does Oregon have?
 - One across the entire state.
 - Two, depending on the number of employees in the business.
 - Three, depending on where in the state the business resides.
 - Four, based on our Congressional districts.
- "Contributions" to the new state PAID family and medical leave fund cannot exceed what percentage of an employee's wages?
 - 0.5 percent
 - 1 percent
 - 1.5 percent
 - 2 percent
- Nationally, vehicle sales are softening.
True False
- Oregon's minimum wage will increase on
 - June 30
 - July 4
 - July 1
 - September 1
- DMV started transitioning from metal VIN decals to stickers on _____.
 - June 1
 - June 3
 - July 1
 - July 3
- CFPB is an acronym for which Federal agency:
 - Congressional Financial Protection Bureau
 - Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
 - Consumer Funding Protection Bureau
 - Commercial Financing Protection Bureau
- Keizer attorney Dennis Koho passed away on June 10. He previously served as:
 - DMV Business Regulation Director
 - ODOT Director
 - Governor
 - Chair of the Transportation Commission
- "The Legislature must conclude its business for the year by _____."
 - June 30
 - July 4
 - July 31
 - September 10